The United States Embassy in Antananarivo, Madagascar is pleased to announce that effective November 1, 2008, BNI Madagascar Bank will begin accepting payment for non-immigrant visa applications. The fee for the non-immigrant visa will remain unchanged at $131 and can be paid in Madagascar Ariary at any BNI Madagascar branch.

Applicants should be sure to request two copies of the receipt when making a payment and must bring both copies to the interview appointment.

Visa fees will be continued to be collected at the Embassy on the day of the appointment until December 31, 2008. Starting January 1, 2009, non-immigrant visa application fees will no longer be accepted at the Embassy and must be paid before the interview appointment at any BNI Madagascar branch.
